Collect for the Twenty-second Sunday

God of might, giver of every good gift, put into our hearts the love of your name, so that, by deepening our sense of reverence, you may nurture in us what is good and, by your watchful care, keep safe what you have nurtured.

From a sermon by St Augustine, bishop (†430)

The holy Scriptures do not promise us peace, security, and rest. On the contrary, the Gospel makes no secret of the troubles and temptations that await us, but it also says that the one who perseveres to the end will be saved. Is there any affliction now endured by mankind that was not endured by our forefathers? What sufferings of ours even bear comparison with what we know of their sufferings? And yet you hear people complaining about this present day and age because things were so much better in former times. I wonder what would happen if they could be taken back to the days of their ancestors – would we not still hear them complaining? You may think past ages were good, but it is only because you are not living in them. How can you think that past ages were better than your own? From the time of that first Adam to the time of his descendants today, man's lot has been labor and sweat, thorns and thistles. Have we forgotten the flood and the calamitous times of famine and war whose history has been recorded precisely in order to keep us from complaining to God on account of our own times? Far from justifying complaints about our own time, they teach us how much we have to be thankful for.

Thank you for last week's stewardship

As part of the Eucharistic Revival, the Diocese of Lafayette is hosting a diocesan Eucharistic rally that will be held on Thursday, October 5 at the Cajundome Convention Center from 6-9:30 p.m. The evening includes Mass celebrated by Bishop Deshotel, a dinner with a keynote address by Dr Ralph Martin, and adoration and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Admission is free, and I heartily encourage all to attend this event.

Our parish photo directory project is underway. Please take note of the informational posters around the church. Over the next several weeks, you will be able to sign up at church or even online. There will be a table in the back of church after Mass where volunteers will help you sign up for a photo session. There is no cost to participate, and each session receives a free 8x10 portrait and a free parish photo directory. After your session, you will have the option to purchase various photo prints, including framed options. However, there is no obligation to buy. The great benefit of a project like this to our parish is the production of the photo directory, which will include photos of all parishioners. The great benefit to participants is the opportunity for a professional, studio-grade portrait, which can be used for all sorts of purposes.

Finally, it seems I'll be returning to Italy next year. But only for a 10-day pilgrimage. Do you want to come along? I hope you do. Through Magnificat Travels, St Patrick's is planning a pilgrimage to Rome, the Vatican City, Assisi, and more. The pilgrimage dates are set for June 17-24, 2024. If you're interested, then we've scheduled an orientation meeting on Wednesday, October 4 at 6 p.m. at our parish hall. Please RSVP for the orientation meeting by calling Magnificat Travels at 337-291-1933 or online at www.holytravels.org/FrGuilloryItaly.

By the time of the pilgrimage next year, it will have been five years since I've been back to Italy, where I lived on and off for nearly twelve years for theological studies and for work in the Roman Curia. To be truthful, I'm a little "Rome-sick" and am very glad to be going back to Italy with a group from St Patrick's! I hope you'll consider making this pilgrimage with us! Arrivederci!

Fr. Guillory
