Grand Coteau Retreats

Our Lady of the Oaks Jesuit Retreat House and St Charles College in Grand Coteau offer retreats for men, women, and couples, individually directed and preached retreats. These retreats, directed by Jesuit priests and thoroughly trained lay directors, are based on St Ignatius of Loyola’s famous Spiritual Exercises. Mass, Reconciliation, Way of the Cross, and the Rosary are also featured during the retreat experience. For a calendar of all upcoming retreats, and to register, you may go online to gcretreats.org.

*Lord, you will show us the path of life.
~ Psalm 16:1-2*

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Catholic Charities of Acadiana needs volunteers. Here is how you can help:

St. Joseph Diner: sign up to serve during the most needed shifts: breakfast and dinner.

Collect, third Sunday of Easter

May your people exult for ever, O God, in renewed youthfulness of spirit, so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption, we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection.

From the Pastor’s Desk

On Friday, April 24, I will be leaving for my annual retreat. This year, I have arranged to make my retreat at Subiaco Abbey, which is not far from Fort Smith, nestled between the Ouachita Mountains and the Ozark National Forest in the Arkansas River Valley. That means I’ll be away for the next two weekends, as I seek silence and prayer among the Benedictine monks who live, work, and pray at Subiaco. I’ll return to St Patrick’s on Tuesday, May 5. In my stead, you’ll see some of my dear priest friends who will offer Mass for you here: Fr Kevin Bordelon, Fr Gil Dutel, Msgr Curtis Mallet. I am grateful to them for their help, and of course, to Fr Jude Halphen, who regularly says Mass on Mondays, when I take a day off. Retreats are meant to be times of rest and spiritual renewal, so essential to all who take their spiritual lives seriously. This is especially true for priests! I ask you to remember me in your prayer while I’m on retreat, and I’ll do the same for you. And remember, if you’re interested in the Ireland pilgrimage, but sure to RSVP for the informational meeting on May 6!
