Collect, fourth Sunday of Easter

Almighty ever-living God, lead us to a share in the joys of heaven, so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before.

Stewardship Moment

The responsible use of money and our worldly assets is part of our commitment to Christian discipleship. How we use our assets in this life, and the provisions that we make for our assets after our death, is something that every Christian should consider well and act upon. Estate planning, legacy giving, last will and testament: these are all terms used for making provisions for our assets after our death. Every faithful Catholic should carefully and prayerfully consider how — not whether — they will remember the Church in their estate planning. A legacy gift to a Catholic school, especially to small, struggling schools, to a Catholic charity that benefits the poor, or to a Catholic parish is a way of contributing to the mission of the Church, with generosity and faith, in hope for the future. You may wish to discuss options and possibilities with your financial/legal advisers and perhaps even your parish priest.

Thank you for last week’s stewardship

Offerings.....$3,175

Next Sunday’s second collection is for St Patrick’s building and maintenance fund.
